OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF INDUSTRIES AND COMMERCE, BANGALORE.

Notification.

Two scholarships of the value of Rs. 50 each tenable for a year will be awarded for undergoing training in the Dyeing and Finishing Section of the Silk Weaving Factory at Mysore. Applications are invited from duly qualified candidates for these scholarships and the applications should reach the undersigned on or before the 16th June 1932. Only candidates possessing the following minimum qualifications need apply. They should have passed the Diploma Examination in Dyeing of either the Victoria Jubilee Technical Institute, Bombay, or the Government School of Dyeing and Printing, Cawnpore, and should have practical experience in Dyeing work

N. RAMA RAO,
Director.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF AGRICULTURE IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Notification No. C. 3031 of 31-32, dated the 30th May 1932.

The following Notification issued by the Sugar Technologist Imperial Council of Agricultural Research, India, is published for information. Applications for training from candidates in Mysore should be submitted to the Director of Agriculture in Mysore on forms which may be obtained from him on application. The applications should reach this office on or before the 13th of June 1932.

NOTIFICATION.

Training in Sugar Technology.

"Applications are invited for nomination of five students by the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research, India, for training (without payment of tuition fees) in Sugar Technology at the Harcourt Butler Technological Institute, Cawnpore. There will be no entrance examination. Candidates possessing a degree in science or who have had two years training in a Mechanical Engineering College of University standard will be eligible for admission after selection by the Council.

"The next session begins on July 15th. Applications should be addressed to the Sugar Technologist, Imperial Council of Agricultural Research, India, Cawnpore, on prescribed forms obtainable from him and should reach him not later than June 20, 1932, accompanied by a deposit of Rs. 15 which will be returned to unsuccessful applicants or retained as caution money on behalf of successful candidates."

H. V. KRISHNAYYA,
Offg. Director of Agriculture.

IN THE COURT OF THE SUBORDINATE JUDGE, MYSORE.

Insolvency Case No. 66 of 1929-30.

Karapannachari, son of Karapannachari, residing at Sunnadakeri, Krishnaraja Mohalla, Mysore ... ... Applicant.

Order.

On the application of Karapannachari, adjudged insolvent on the 29th day of July 1930, and in lieu of the conditional order of discharge granted by this court on 6th January 1931, and published in the Mysore Gazette, dated 15th January 1931, it is hereby ordered that the above insolvent be discharged forthwith as per order of the District Judge, Mysore, passed on 6th February 1932 in Mis. Appeal No. 83 of 1930-31.

C. ABDUL GHANI,
Subordinate Judge.